

Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung

Committed to Social Democracy

A world map with numerous city names marked as dots, including Stockholm, St. Petersburg, Moscow, London, Paris, Berlin, Rome, Athens, Cairo, New Delhi, Tokyo, Seoul, Manila, Jakarta, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Bangkok, Hanoi, Colombo, Addis Ababa, Khartoum, Dakar, Bamako, Algiers, Tunis, Cairo, Lagos, Accra, Nairobi, Kampala, Harare, Lusaka, Windhoek, Pretoria, Johannesburg, Cape Town, Durban, Port Elizabeth, and many others. A legend at the bottom right indicates 'FES 2018' and 'Sticht April 2018'.

Political Foundations in Germany

FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

CDU

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG FÜR DIE FREIHEIT

 HEINRICH BÖLL STIFTUNG

Hanns
Seidel Stiftung

rls
Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung

DIE LINKE.

FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG

Friedrich-Ebert (1871-1925)

First democratically elected president of Germany

“Democracy needs Democrats.”

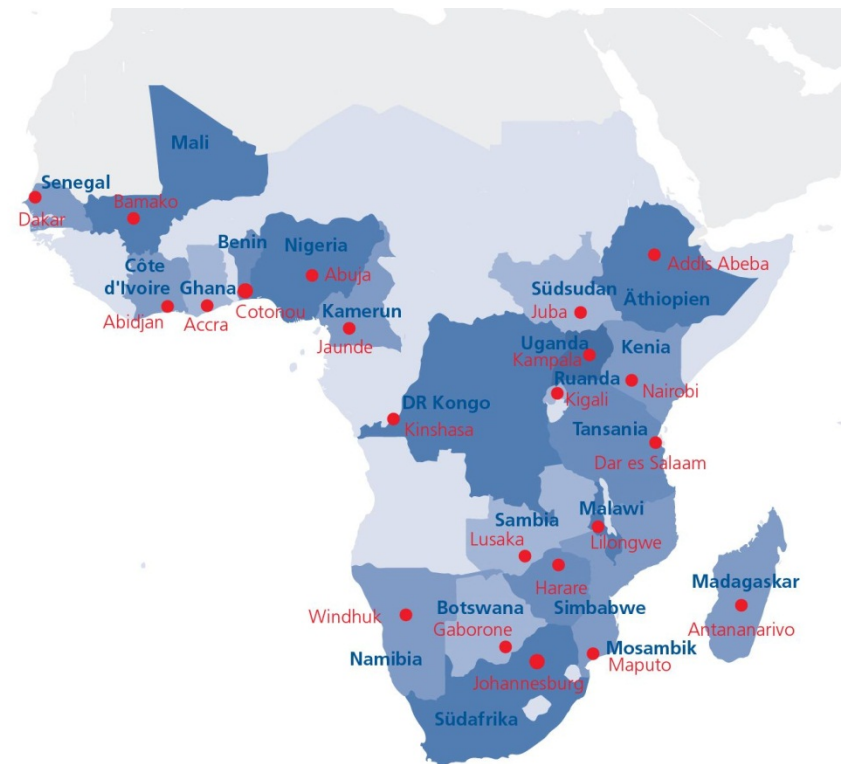

Portrait Friedrich Ebert, ca. 1918.

FES International Work

- National Offices: 20
- Regional Work Lines in Africa:
 - Peace and Security (Senegal)
 - Trade Unions (South Africa)
 - fesmedia Africa (Namibia)
 - AU Liaison Office (Ethiopia)

Support Further Democratisation

Social Inequality

Just Transition

South Africa's International Relations

Fort Hare Autumn School

Thank you for your attention!

For more information visit:

fes-southafrica.org

facebook.com/fes.southafrica